Services

Brawand Consulting provides copyediting and formatting services, primarily for scholarly book manuscripts and articles, but also for novels.

Services include formatting in a variety of styles, and includes citations, endnotes, footnotes, and bibliography. References are verified by consulting appropriate sources. A detailed list of edits is returned to the author for review and approval.

We also specialize in edited volumes and in manuscripts which include translations.

Formatting Styles

- Chicago Manual of Style (CMS)
- Modern Language Association (MLA)
- American Psychological Association (APA)
- New Hart's Rules
- University and Publisher-specific guidelines

Fees and Payments

A detailed quote is available at no charge, after review of electronic files.

Invoices are provided electronically. All major credit cards are accepted (USA and abroad). Necessary tax/identification information is available for educational institutions.

References

References are available upon request. Brawand Consulting has more than fifteen years of experience copyediting for university presses and other publishers.
